Health Benefits in Texas

Details & Applicable Instructions:

The surviving spouse and surviving dependents of Texas law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty are entitled to purchase continued health insurance benefits. The surviving spouse is entitled to continue to purchase health insurance coverage until the earlier of the date the surviving spouse becomes eligible for federal Medicare benefits.

Surviving dependent minor children are entitled to continue health insurance coverage until the dependent reaches the age of 18 years; or becomes eligible for group health insurance through another employer.

Surviving dependents who are not minor children are entitled to continue health insurance coverage until the earlier of the date the dependent becomes eligible for group health insurance through another employer; or the date the dependent becomes eligible for federal Medicare benefits.

Survivors may elect to continue coverage at any level of benefits currently offered by the employing entity to dependents of an active employee. Eligible survivors who are entitled to continued coverage are entitled to purchase the coverage at the group rate for that coverage that exists at the time of payment.

Contact the Benefits Assistance Officer at your agency to continue group health insurance coverage.

Texas Workers' Comp

Provider: Texas Department of Insurance

Summary: Will pay up to $2,500 for funeral expenses which can be paid directly to the funeral home handling the burial arrangements. Payment will be computed by multiplying the employee's average weekly wage by 75.

(512) 804-4000

Texas Department of Insurance
7551 Metro Center Drive, Suite 100
Austin, Texas 78744

Details & Applicable Instructions:

Workers' Compensation coverage is elective for employers in Texas.

Workers' Compensation will pay the following death benefits when a law enforcement officer is killed in the line of duty:

- (1) Will pay up to $2,500 for funeral expenses which can be paid directly to the funeral home handling the burial arrangements.
- (2) Payment will be computed by multiplying the employee's average weekly wage by 75.
- (3) If the officer is survived by any minor children, Workers' Compensation will then mandatorily divide the payment, paying a portion each week to the child until the child reaches the age of 18, or marries, or beyond age 18 if disabled, or until the child reaches the age of 25 if full-time students. If there are two or more children, the weekly amount must equally be divided among them.
- (4) At such time as all dependent children become of age or leave home, the surviving spouse will receive a weekly benefit thereafter.
- (5) If the Line of Duty Death occurs on or after September 1, 2015, the surviving spouse will continue to receive the Worker's Compensation Benefit whether or not the surviving spouse chooses to remarry. The minor child or children will receive the weekly benefit until reaching the maximum age.
- (6) If the officer was single and had never been married, the parents (if living) or next of kin, if financially dependent upon the officer, are entitled to receive cash settlement under Workers' Compensation.

Workers' Compensation benefits are calculated based on the officer's average salary for the 13 weeks immediately prior to death.

To file for Workers' Compensation, the officer's survivors, or their representative should contact the Industrial Accident Board. To file the claim, the following information will be needed:

- (1) Full name of the deceased and age.
- (2) Social Security number of the deceased.
- (3) Date and time of injury.
- (4) Description of injuries received.
- (5) Date and time of death.
- (6) Exact cause of death.
- (7) Hourly wage rate and weekly wage average of the deceased.
- (8) Full name and age of surviving spouse.
- (9) Full names, ages, dates of birth, and marital status of children.
- (10) Date of marriage and copy of marriage certificate.
- (11) Names, addresses, and dates of marriage and divorce or death of previous spouses if the deceased was married more than once.
- (12) Copy of the death certificate.
- (13) If the deceased was not married, then the name and the address of parents, if living, or next of kin.

Workers' Compensation benefits will begin approximately two weeks after the date of filing.
